June 20, 2007

To whom it may concern,

I would like very much to recommend and endorse Mr. Avi Niv and his company MAYDAY International. Mr. Niv and his organization provide training in the area of counter terrorism strategies. This training applies to public service organizations, law enforcement and other private institutions.

During the final days of April of 2007, Mr. Niv and his associates provided training for the members of the El Paso County Sheriff's Office. This training was well received and there were requests for additional trainings at a later time. The subject matter was timely and of tremendous importance to our law enforcement function in a border community.

As a training director, I am exposed to many training programs that are touted as being leading edge and note worthy. In many cases, these programs are mediocre and overrated. Regarding Mr. Niv and his associates, the training was superb and very worthwhile.
